

September 16, 1942.

Mr. Harold G. Burr,
9 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Burr:

I am writing to thank you for the very splendid cooperation you gave us in staging the ball game in Brooklyn. I realize the money you received would not pay you for all the efforts you put forth, but I really think we did quite well, when you consider the short time we had to work, and the tremendous opposition we had to play to. I do hope, if the baseball survives next year, you will be able to assist us when we come to Brooklyn and probably in other times.

I will appreciate hearing from you to learn if you would be interested in working with us in the future.

Again please accept my thanks for your very kind assistance.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ